MASTER OF DIVINITY IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

90 UNITS

The Master of Divinity in Biblical Studies is designed to provide the biblical, theological and ministerial foundation for church ministry. In addition, it prepares students to train pastors and church workers in the Bible school or seminary setting.

The program nurtures integrated spirituality cultivating respect for the Word of God, in interpreting it in the light of both biblical and present-day contexts, and appropriating it for personal and corporate life. Its specific focus is the responsible interpretation of the Old and New Testaments using the biblical languages and the practice of genre-based exegesis. In addition to classroom studies, students are required to complete one internship and three Care Groups as part of their integrated learning.
